36. The powerful waves of a flooded river swept away many houses of the villages. Along with many other things, two pots were also swept away. These were floating in the river water.

One of them was a copper pot and the other one was earthen pot. Both were floating side by side at some distance. The copper pot smiled at the earthen pot and said, “Dear friend, why didn’t you come close to me ? You are made of clay and so you are delicate. If you come close to me, I’ll protect you from difficulties and save you from any harm.

The earthen pot smiled mildly and said, “Thanks for your kind gestures ! However, I am scared to come close to you I’m fragile. If by any chance we clash with each other, I will break into tiny pieces. So, please let me float away from you and allow me to help myself.”
